

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

IN RE:

Quincy Morris,

Debtor.

Case No. 06-46234

Chapter 7

Hon. Phillip J. Shefferly

ORDER DISMISSING CHAPTER 7 CASE AND BARRING
DEBTOR FROM FURTHER BANKRUPTCY FILINGS

On June 29, 2006, the Court entered an order to show cause why this case should not be dismissed for abuse and Debtor sanctioned for willful failure to properly prosecute the case and for abusive serial filings. The order to show cause detailed four separate cases filed by the Debtor, the first three of which were dismissed. None of the four cases have been properly prosecuted. No filing fees have been paid in any of them. No § 341 first meeting of creditors has been conducted in any of them. Schedules of assets and liabilities and statements of financial affairs and other required documents have not been filed. The only activities undertaken by the Debtor in these cases consist of the filing of an adversary proceeding that appears on its face to be specious. Because of these facts, the Court entered the order to show cause and required the Debtor to appear at a hearing on July 12, 2006 to show cause why this case should not be dismissed, a permanent bar issued as to any future filings by the Debtor, and other sanctions imposed for his abusive and improper bankruptcy filings. True to form, the Debtor did not appear at the hearing. The U.S. Trustee appeared through his attorney. The U.S. Trustee requested that the Court dismiss this case and consider the imposition of additional sanctions.

After reviewing all four of the Debtor's bankruptcy cases, the Court finds that the Debtor has engaged in a pattern of willful failure to abide by orders of the Court, the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, and has failed to appear before the Court in proper prosecution of any of his bankruptcy cases. For the reasons set forth on the record in open Court on July 12, 2006, the Court concludes that this case should be dismissed and that the Debtor must be permanently prohibited from filing any further bankruptcy cases without permission of this Court. Accordingly, pursuant to this Court's powers under § 105(a), § 109(g)(1) and § 349(a), see Casse v. Key Bank (In re Casse), 198 F.3d 327 (2d Cir. 1999); In re Johnson, 281 B.R. 269 (Bankr. E.D. Ky. 2002); In re McCoy, 237 B.R. 419 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1999),

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this Chapter 7 case is dismissed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Debtor, Quincy Morris, is permanently barred and prohibited from filing any bankruptcy petitions without further order of this Court.
